152nd Annual Convention

Journal of Proceedings

On Monday, May 4, 1936, at 6.15 P. M., the Bishop of the Diocese entertained the Deputies to the Convention at a Dinner, which was followed by a Mass Meeting at 8.15 P. M., in the Church of The Holy Trinity, Philadelphia, when the Bishop read The Annual Address to the Convention (see Appendix A), and Lewis B. Franklin, D.C.L., Vice-President of the National Council, spoke on his trip to the Orient. The Offering for Missionary Work amounted to $200.02.

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, PHILADELPHIA,
TUESDAY, MAY 5, 1936.

The Opening Service of the One Hundred and Fifty-second Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania was held as above at 9 A. M. by Resolution of the last Convention.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Rt. Rev. Francis Marion Taitt, S.T.D., LL.D., Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Rev. E. M. Jefferys, S.T.D., the Rev. H. R. Weir and the Rev. R. J. Morris. The Offering for Missionary Work amounted to $29.60.

The Convention was called to order by the Bishop at 10.10 A. M., and, a quorum being present, proceeded to business.

The Order of the Day being the election of a Secretary, the Rev. J. M. Niblo nominated

the Rev. Richard J. Morris

On motion, the nominations were closed and the President, having cast the ballot, declared Mr. Morris duly elected.

The Secretary appointed as Assistant Secretary

the Rev. Charles H. Long

The Convention confirmed the appointment.

The Rev. J. M. Niblo presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS

which was adopted:

Your Committee presents herewith its suggested program for the dispatch of business during the Convention.

In order to expedite the order of business, your Committee suggests that all Reports be made by Title as far as possible. And all through the Convention Resolutions to discharge Committees from further consideration of the subject be omitted, it being understood that they are so discharged unless the Convention recommit the matter to their further consideration, or unless the work of the Committee is unfinished.

The Rev. C. H. Long presented the

which was adopted.

The Secretary read the Canon of Courtesy, as follows:

Canon II, Section VIII. Clergymen canonically resident in this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in the Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Clergymen of other Churches in communion with this Church, Candidates for Holy Orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church, Wardens of Missions organized under the provision of the Canon on The Organization of Missions, and all persons holding any office of trust under this Convention, though not members, shall be admitted to the sittings in this Convention.

The Secretary read the Report:

The Secretary of the Convention reports

That during the past year he has fulfilled his duties as prescribed by the Constitution and Canons so far as possible.

That under date of March 1 he sent out the Calls and other Documents for the Annual Convention.

That on February 1 only 43 of the Annual Reports of the Parishes and Missions had been returned out of the 231 due, many of them being very incomplete. He would ask once more that the Report blank be completely filled out, as all the figures are required for the Report to the General Convention and are a permanent record of the whole activities of the Parishes and Missions. This is the Report of the Parish and not merely of the Accounting Warden. In the Reports probably 1,000 names are marked "Removed." By Resolution of the General Convention these names must still be recorded on the Parish Register. (See Journal 1935, page 39.)

That boxes for the Registration of the Clerical and Lay Deputies have been placed in the vestibules of the Church and all Deputies should register at once.

That the following is Unfinished Business from the Annual Convention of 1935:

(1) Report of the Diocesan Campaign Fund.
(2) Report by the Committee on Memorial to Bishop Garland.
(3) Report of the Committee on Portrait of Bishop Garland.
(4) Report of the Committee on Safeguarding Finances.
(5) Report of the Committee on Amendments to the Constitution.

That the following Parishes have not sent in Certificates of Lay Deputies and therefore have no Lay Deputies in this Convention: S. John, New London; S. James, Bristol; Emmanuel, Kensington; Good Shepherd, Kensington; S. John Chrysostom; S. Elisabeth, Philadelphia; S. Mary, Philadelphia; Trinity, Centreville; S. Peter, Great Valley; Christ, Media; S. David, Radnor; Holy Nativity, Rockledge; Christ, Eddington; S. John Free, Philadelphia; S. Philip, Philadelphia; S. Luke and The Epiphany; S. Timothy, Roxborough.

That of the 45 Missions and Chapels entitled to Lay Representatives only 18 have sent in Certificates.

The Secretary reports further:

That the following Parishes have not sent in Parochial Reports for 1935: S. John, Lansdowne; S. John Free, Philadelphia.

That the following Parishes have not paid the required Assessments for 1935: Atonement, Morton; Good Shepherd, Kensington; Holy Nativity, Rockledge; S. Bartholomew, Wissinoming; S. James Hestonville; Trinity, Ambler; S. Jude and The Nativity; S. Elisabeth; S. John Chrysostom; S. James the Less, Philadelphia; S. John Free, Philadelphia; S. Thomas, Philadelphia.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED: That the right of Representation in this Convention of those Parishes which have not sent Parochial Reports, or have not paid their Assessments, be declared forfeited; but that they be invited to present to the Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats any facts which seem to them to justify a restoration of such rights of Representation; and, that the said Committee be instructed to consider such facts and make appropriate recommendations to the Convention; and, that meanwhile the Lay Representatives from said Parishes be invited to take their seats, but to refrain from participating in the proceedings until the Convention shall have restored the right of Representation of their Parishes.

The President appointed the following Committees:

Claims of the Clergy to Seats:

The Rev. George Copeland — The Rev. C. B. Dubell
The Rev. J. R. Logan

Claims of Laity to Seats:

Mr. C. L. Harper — Mr. J. L. Evans
Mr. George Hall

THE COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS presented the Report as follows:

That in accord with Standing Order V, the Preliminary Ballot was sent out to 237 Clerical Deputies according to a list prepared by the Ecclesiastical Authority as entitled to vote and to the Rectors of the 141 Parishes in Union with the Convention (3 each) for the use of the Lay Deputies.

That from the 66 Preliminary Ballots returned, 2 of which were blank and 3 defective, the Official Ballot was prepared and sent to the Clerical Deputies and to the Lay Deputies whose election had been certified to the Secretary of the Convention under date of April 26th, and to the Secretary of the Convention.

That the Elections will be held in the usual manner in the Church House, the Clergy voting in the Assembly Room and the Lay Deputies in the room adjoining. The First Ballot will be taken at 1:45 P. M.

The Committee would report further that the following who were nominated on the Preliminary Ballot have withdrawn their names:

Standing Committee: The Rev. W. E. Conkling.
Deputy to the Provincial Synod: Mr. Isaac Starr, deceased.
Board of Triers: The Rev. H. R. Gummey and that the Rev. Crosswell McBee has resigned.

For the Committee, RICHARD J. MORRIS, Chairman.

The Secretary reports further:

That in accordance with the Resolution of the last Convention he notified 33 Clergy living outside the Diocese concerning refunding of Assessments Paid for them and that 10 sent cheques to cover same.

The Secretary reported the Nominations for Officers to be filled by Elections, as certified to by the Committee on Elections. (See below and page 46-47.)

Additional Nominations being asked for, the following were nominated: Deputy to the Provincial Synod, Mr. E. O. Coates; Board of Triers, Rev. T. L. Gossling, Rev. B. J. Rudderow.

There being no further Nominations, on motion the Nominations were ordered closed where only a sufficient number had been nominated, and the Secretary was instructed to cast the Ballot for those thus nominated; which having been done, the President declared elected the following:

DEPUTY TO THE PROVINCIAL SYNOD: Mr. E. O. Coates.

TRUSTEE OF THE CHRISTMAS FUND: Mr. F. E. Newbold.

Dr. Clattenburg offered the following Resolution, which was adopted unanimously by a Rising Vote:

Francis Marion Taitt, S.T.D., LL.D., our affectionate greeting and to wish him many years of continued and effective service in the Episcopate, pledging to him our loyal support both by prayer and action."

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne offered the following Resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Dispatch of Business (see page 45):

(Signed) GEORGE B. HAWKES.
JAMES M. NIBLO.
C. R. WOODRUFF.

THE COMMITTEE ON CHARTERS presented the REPORT:

The Committee on Charters desires to report that it has had under consideration certain changes in the Recommended Form of Charter for Parishes. This action is necessary in order to bring the Recommended Form of Charter into agreement with the provisions of the Act of Legislature of May 5, 1933, entitled "The Nonprofit Corporation Law."

The Committee has adopted the principle of incorporating in the Revised Form of Charter the minimum provisions as required by law and by the canons, placing all regulatory matter in the "By-Laws." This will save endless confusion and expense.

There are still several provisions of the new Act which are not clear to the mind of the Committee and it requests further time in the preparation of the Revised Form.

The Committee also requests that those who may be considering Charters or amendments to Charters consult the Committee on Charters prior to taking action.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM SHARP, Secretary.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS

and offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Amend Canon XVIII, Section I, Paragraph 2, by adding a new subparagraph (a) and re-lettering the succeeding paragraphs:

(a) It must conform to the requirements of Canon XVI.

Mr. Hartshorne continued the Report and offered the following Amendments to Canon VII, each of which was adopted:

AMENDMENT 1. Amend Canon VII, Section I, by adding new Section I as follows and renumbering the succeeding Sections:

SECTION I. The Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate

1. The Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate shall consist of the investments constituting the permanent Fund, heretofore called the Episcopal Fund, and of such other sums or securities as may from time to time be given or raised for the endowment of the Episcopate in this Diocese, and the investments thereof shall be in the care of and be managed by four trustees elected annually by the Convention as Trustees of the Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate, unless and until the Convention shall appoint a corporation as Trustee of the Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate, to serve as such until the Convention shall otherwise direct, and in that case the said Trustee shall exercise all the powers and perform all the duties of the Trustees aforesaid. The Trustees, or the corporate Trustee, as the case may be, shall pay over the net income to the Treasurer of the Diocese, to be used for the purposes of the Episcopal Fund hereinafter described, and shall make an annual report to the Convention.

AMENDMENT 2. Amend Canon VII, Section I, by repealing all of the present sub-section 2 of the same.

On motion the Trustees of The Episcopal Fund, previously elected (see page 38), were nominated as Trustees for The Fund for The Endowment of The Episcopate. Amend Canon XVI, Section I, by adding two new sub-sections, 2 and 3, between present sub-sections 1 and 2, and renumbering the succeeding sub-sections:

The REPORT OF THE TREASURER OF THE DIOCESE was presented by Title.

Mr. Spencer Ervin presented the following Standing Resolution, which was adopted:

I. This Convention declares it desirable that every Parish shall
   1. Have an annual audit.
   2. Protect its current funds by bonding its drawing officers in such sum as its Vestry may direct, whenever the gross annual receipts of the Parish in any of the three preceding years have been $3,000 or more.
   3. Safeguard its securities.
   4. Supervise its investments.

II. This Convention requests the Executive Council, through its Department of Finance, to aid Parishes to take these measures, and to report to Convention of 1937 its action.

RESOLVED: That the Standing Committee, as representing the Convention, be authorized to enter into such an agreement with the Church Foundation, as is referred to in their report, for the purpose of clarifying the Trusts under which The Church Foundation holds The Church House Fund and the Title to The Church House.

The COMMITTEE ON CHARTERS continued the REPORT.

The Committee on Charters has considered the petition of the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of the Memorial Church of Saint Paul, Overbrook, for amendment of its Charter.

The Amendment provides for a change in the date for the annual meeting of the Parish from Easter Monday, to the first Monday after the tenth of January and to provide for the election of a rotating Vestry.

The Amendment has already been approved by the Court. Our Canon provides that any proposed Amendments shall first be presented to the Bishop, the Standing Committee and the Committee on Charters before presentation to the Court.

The Committee on Charters finds vagueness of expression in the new provisions of the Charter for the continuity of the Vestrymen. The Amendment also fails to state when some of the Vestrymen shall take office, following their election, and it omits in the qualifications for the Vestrymen the requirement that they "shall be baptized and confirmed."

Authority is delegated to the Committee on Charters by the Convention to review the form of Charter prior to the action of the Court. In this case the Committee has reviewed an accomplished fact and therefore it can make no recommendation.

WILLIAM SHARP, Secretary.

The year that has passed has felt some slight financial advance. Business feels the improvement before it is manifest in Church and Charity. Many have gone so deeply in debt that it will take a long time to meet their obligations, and they feel that until that is done, it would be both foolish and wrong to give to other objects. A man approached to give to the Lord replied, "I cannot do it, I owe so much." His friend said, "But do you not feel that you owe something to the Lord?" To this he replied, "Perhaps I do, but He is not pressing me as hard as my other creditors." Yet, I believe that the Church has perceptibly felt the revival.

Parishes are meeting their obligations and the gifts to the Missionary work of the Church have considerably improved. We not only paid our full apportionment, but were enabled to deduct over $17,000 from our overdraft. More marked than our financial improvement has been the deepening of our spiritual life. The attendance at religious services during Lent and especially the vast congregations on Good Friday, and the large increase in the number of communions at our Great Easter celebration, speak eloquently of the power of the spiritual. It is also a great joy to see religious bodies outside our own Church observing the Lenten Season, and apparently receiving a great spiritual uplift.

Care in Removing Names From List of Communicants

This religious revival may not manifest itself in statistics. I hear of many Rectors who have taken large numbers of communicants from their lists because of removals. It should be the effort of every Rector to trace every communicant removing from his Parish, and urge upon him a transfer to the Church near his residence. Some Rectors are not only remiss in this duty but delay or neglect to send transfers when requested. Many are lost to the Church in this way. The Church is one great body, with many geographic centers to furnish opportunities for worship and service. Every member of the Church should be connected with and active in a Parish. In giving the statistics of our Church, we should be able to account for every communicant. There are thousands, I am sure, who are reported nowhere. Every Rector should feel responsible for each communicant until he has been located in another Parish.

Records Events of Interest During Year

There have been many events of interest during the past year:

On June 23, I preached the sermon on the 175th anniversary of Christ Church, Upper Merion.

On October 8, the Seamen's Church Institute celebrated the 10th anniversary of its present building.

On October 29, I preached and confirmed in St. Martin's Church, Marcus Hook, on the occasion of their 233rd anniversary.

On November 4, I dedicated Holy Comforter Church, Aronimink.

On January 1, I instituted the Rev. Wm. P. C. Loane as Rector of the Church of The Incarnation, Drexel Hill.

On February 5, I dedicated a building for the work of the Church Mission of Help. This building was the gift of a member of the Board of Trustees.

On April 5, I preached and confirmed and dedicated an Altar at St. Paul's Church, Doylestown.

On April 25, the Girls' Friendly Society celebrated its 50th anniversary. I attended the banquet and made an address.

On December 15, Christ Church, Upper Merion, dedicated the new Skinner Memorial Organ and on April 19 the Rev. James H. Lamb celebrated the 10th anniversary of his Rectorship.

Two memorial bells have been added to the chime of the Church of The Good Samaritan, Paoli.

St. Faith Completes New Building

St. Faith's, Brookline, has completed construction of a new building to be used as a Parish House. The growth of the Church School necessitated expansion. The new building has an auditorium for the Senior Church School, a Primary Room, Sacristy and office for the Priest in Charge. The basement has a large kitchen and seating capacity for over 200 persons. The congregation has paid all its expenses for the year and has in bank the balance of the $2,500 raised by it as its share of the cost of the new building. Funds are being raised for its complete equipment. All bills have been paid and with the aid of the Church Extension of $2,000 there was paid off the principal of the mortgage, leaving a mortgage of only $5,000 on a $25,000 property. The Diocesan Missionary group will hold its meeting at St. Faith's on Monday, May 18.

In Grace Church, Mt. Airy, there was dedicated an Indiana Limestone Lectern in memory of William F. and his wife, Annie I. Fell. Mr. Fell was for many years a Vestryman of Grace Church, a delegate to the Convention and a member of the Executive Council.

Almost the entire interior furnishings of the Church of The Holy Comforter, Aronimink, were given as memorials by members of the congregation.

Legacies Received During the Year

A number of legacies were received by Churches and Institutions. Mr. Alba B. Johnson left $10,000 to the Seamen's Church Institute. Miss Letitia Murphy, Judge Beitler and Miss Anna C. Taylor left, respectively, $1,500, $1,000 and $200 to St. Matthew's Church, Philadelphia. Miss Blakiston left $1,000 to St. Thomas' Church, Whitemarsh. Legacies aggregating $20,000, viz., Robert Wetherill, $10,000; Richard Wetherill, $5,000, and Mrs. Fannie Lane, $5,000, have been left to St. Paul's Church, Chester. There were doubtless many bequests to other Parishes, which I hope will be added to their Endowment Fund for future security.

Gloria Dei (Old Swedes) Church has instituted

"A Garden of Memories." They are searching for families who had their beginnings in the early Swedish Settlement and whose forbears have been laid to rest in the Churchyard. From them they ask memorial plants to make the surroundings of the Ancient Church beautiful. It is a fine idea. The external surroundings emphasize the beauty and restfulness of this ancient "God's Acre."

The Chapel of The Holy Communion, Philadelphia, has had presented to it brass Communion rails in memory of Mrs. Martha Peoples. This Chapel will celebrate this year the 50th anniversary of the inauguration of the work in this district by George C. Thomas, and the Vestry of the Church of The Holy Apostles.

On June 16 Trinity Church, Swarthmore, celebrated the 40th anniversary of the Church and the 10th anniversary of the Ordination of its Rector.

On last Whitsunday the Church of The Annunciation celebrated the 50th anniversary of its first service in the present edifice. It is a delightful memory of your Bishop that as a young man he attended service here on that first Sunday. It was a joy to him to preach and confirm in this beautiful Church on the 50th anniversary of that day.

We have several Missions for the rescue and care of those who have fallen. One of our finest is Galilee Mission under the splendid and efficient care of George W. Wilkins, who has also had charge of The Shelter on Hamilton Street. His report for the past year is as follows:

Work of Galilee Mission Noted

The Galilee Mission was founded in 1897, its aim and purpose being an institution for the good of needy men. It furnishes meals and lodgings to destitute men; assists clients in obtaining employment; maintains separate quarters for homeless boys; chapel services are held nightly. It conducts weekly Sunday School for neighborhood children, and summer outings for children; provides for convalescent men from hospitals, and plans rehabilitation of handicapped men.

The Statistical Report for 1935 is as follows:

Chapel Attendance	31,860
Sunday School Membership	325
Sunday School Teachers	49
Sunday School Attendance	11,562

The Divinity School in Philadelphia has not reached a condition of safety. A considerable sum has been contributed and the School has been kept open for the benefit of those who had already begun their course. While not a Diocesan project, it has the great affection of the Diocese and most of its support is derived from here. When appeals are made to you for its support, I ask you to give a sympathetic hearing. Over a million and a half dollars is represented in its buildings and lands, and with present support it should become one of the greatest Schools of Theological learning in the country.

Situation at Philadelphia Divinity School

The Cathedral is also a subject that is before us. None but the younger members may see its completion. It is the work of generations; sometimes of centuries. Each generation, however, must have and do its part. We have completed one small section and it is worthy of the project. There are expenses, interest on mortgages, and care of the property, which must be met. We have started The Cathedral League, composed of those who contribute a small yearly sum to provide for its present needs. We want especially that it shall be remembered in your Wills when disposing of your worldly goods.

Bishop Satterlee declared that so many objections were made to the location of the Washington Cathedral that he was in despair. All said it was so far away from the population. The same was said of the New York Cathedral. The wisdom of these sites is now seen by all. With the growth of population, I have no doubt that when our Cathedral is ready for active use, men will see a like wisdom.

Many of our charities have endowments of long standing and no effort is made to increase them.

Endowments Needed for Our Charities

Today the income is less and the demands upon them greater than at any past time. One of these is the Christmas Fund for old or disabled Clergy, their widows and orphans, and Deaconesses retiring on account of age or infirmity. The amounts given out have been greatly cut and the number receiving aid has been curtailed. In many cases there is considerable poverty among these widows and daughters. Formerly an offering was taken up every Christmas. This has been greatly neglected and last year the sum received was about $300. I want to make an appeal that those of considerable wealth give or leave liberal sums for this charity and that those who have little, will make a gift each Christmas to that Fund.

This is the 25th year of THE CHURCH NEWS, our Diocesan paper. I do not believe that there is a

Silver Anniversary of "The Church News"

Church paper in the whole United States that excels it. It has been a great instrument of service, carrying both information and inspiration to our people. I wish that we could mark the completion of a quarter of a century with a doubling of the subscription list. I would like every communicant to be familiar with what it contains. I am sure it would make us more cheerful and more faithful Christians.

I am most happy to report to you the following communication: At a meeting of the Board of Managers of The Bishop White Prayer Book Society, held on Thursday, April 16, 1936, the following action was taken:

Approves Celebration in 1937 of Bishop White's Consecration

"The Bishop White Prayer Book Society respectfully recalls to the attention of the Diocesan Convention the approach in 1937 of the 150th Anniversary of an event of major significance in the religious development of our Church and Nation.

"It was on February 4, 1787, in Lambeth Palace, London, that the Rev. William White, D.D., was consecrated Bishop by the Most Rev. John Moore, D.D., Archbishop of Canterbury, the Rt. Rev. Charles Moss, D.D., Bishop of Bath and Wells, and the Rt. Rev. John Hinchcliffe, D.D., Bishop of Peterborough.

"The extraordinary contribution which for forty-nine subsequent years this pioneer Bishop of the Anglican Succession in the New World made to our spiritual life locally and nationally, cannot be told too often or too convincingly to this confused generation.

"We, therefore, venture to recommend that this Convention request the Bishop of the Diocese to appoint a committee of five, with power to add to their number, and to take such action as they may find fitting, to appropriately celebrate this outstanding incident in our history."

I assure you it will give me great pleasure to appoint such a committee. The value of the Prayer Book as a Missionary Agency cannot be over-estimated. It has been left in lonely places and has provided both private devotion and public worship. For the life and labors of Bishop White and for his wonderful grace and virtue, we yield high praise and hearty thanks to Almighty God.

Urges Episcopal Fund Be Augmented

A very happy occasion to me was the 50th anniversary of my Ordination to the Priesthood on February 3. At Old St. Peter's Church, where I was ordained to the Priesthood, I celebrated the Holy Communion, with the Rector of St. Peter's as the Epistoler and the Rector of Christ Church, my early Church home, as the Gospeler. In the Chancel were the President of the National Council (Bishop Cook), and Bishop Sterrett, of Bethlehem. There was a large congregatoin of Clergy and Laity. The choir gave us such music as that choir alone can give. After the service the Clergy gave a lunch to the Bishop, and the choir presented a large basket of golden flowers emblematic of the golden anniversary. In the afternoon, in the beautifully decorated rooms of the Church House, a reception was given and over a thousand people were present. It was a very joyous occasion. At my own request no personal gift was made to me, but it was decided that for the rest of the year an opportunity be given to those who so desired, to contribute to the endowment of the Episcopate. This fund was to be known as the Bishop's Jubilee Fund.

Though our Diocese is over 150 years old, the endowment of the Episcopate is very meagre, and yields only about 1/6th of the expenses chargeable to that fund. The rest is raised by assessment. This makes quite a demand on many of the weaker Parishes. It is my earnest hope that a real effort will be made to augment this valuable fund.

Of the Missionary spirit in this Diocese we may be justly proud. In view of this, and to further develop this spirit, I have appointed a Committee on Missionary Research:

Names Missionary Research Committee

Chairmen: Rev. Charles W. Shreiner, D.D., Mr. Spencer Ervin.

Chester Convocation: Rev. Richard T. Lyford, Mr. E. Osborne Coates.

Germantown Convocation: Rev. Wallace E. Conkling, Mr. Joshua Ash Pearson.

Norristown Convocation: Rev. James M. Niblo, Mr. William B. Read.

South Philadelphia Convocation: Rev. Howard R. Weir, Mr. C. C. Morris.

North Philadelphia Convocation: Rev. Franklin Joiner, D.D., Mr. William White.

West Philadelphia Convocation: Rev. Granville Taylor, Mr. Edward C. Bendere.

Appeals for Missionary Work of the Church

Concerning the great missionary work of the Church, I said last year, "The fire of devotion still burns upon our Altar, and coals from that Altar have touched the tongues of most of our Clergy. Many sacrifices are made to do the Master's will. Let us see what greater sacrifices we can make, so that the first sign of financial revival shall be registered in larger gifts to the Master's service, and especially for the spread of the Master's Kingdom."

In our Diocese we are trying to do this, this year. We increased our promise from $125,000 to $135,000. Then, knowing there was $127,000 which must still be met, we assumed one-tenth of that, or $12,700, making our whole promise $147,700. In former years, in times of emergency, Pennsylvania has generally assumed one-tenth of the amount required. She does not want to break her record now. It is true that there has been a decline in her givings in the last five years, but her decline has been less than almost any other large Diocese in the country. Two years ago she gave only 70% of the amount asked of her, but this was by far the largest percentage of any of the Dioceses contributing over $100,000, the next highest percentage being 59%. We hope now to start a movement upward until we surpass the givings before the depression.

Calls for the United Effort of Everyone for Cause of Missions

We believe that the great work of the Church is that "God's way may be known upon earth, His saving health among all nations." Beautiful Churches, fine music, good preaching, all these are acceptable gifts to God, but the great Commission to the Church is "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." We cannot postpone this for anything else. I wish that every pastor could grasp this great truth. Our Convocation meetings thrill with missionary zeal. Our Deans are most faithful and conscientious. Some of our Parishes very much over-subscribe the amounts asked of them. If we could have the united effort of everyone we could put a new life and cheer into the missionary work of the whole Church. The National Council is sending us speakers so that every Parish can get the story from those who have been in the work. We will again appeal to a group of people whom we term "Diocesan Contributors." They have already contributed their share to their Parish apportionment and do not want to deprive or excuse others of their privilege and duty to give. It has been foolishly said that these contributions weaken the Parish. Nothing is farther from the truth. They strengthen the Parish. When the amount asked is contributed, it sometimes happens that no further effort is made, and many who should and would contribute are not appealed to. There always were such Diocesan Contributors. At one time, one man made up the deficits. In Bishop Garland's time there were about fifteen, and he left no record of their names. Last year about 500 sent contributions. We trust the number will increase and that with the returning tide of financial improvement the amounts may be even larger.

I want that all shall get the joy of working with God for the redemption of the world. There is no joy like it. To this great work and joy let us all consecrate ourselves anew. "And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

"Faithful is He that calleth you, Who also will do it."

MEMORIAL NOTICES

Of Bishops of the Church:

RALPH ERNEST URBAN, Bishop Suffragan of New Jersey, died at Jefferson Hospital, Philadelphia, May 18, 1935, aged sixty years. He was born at Mount Hope, Pennsylvania, March 29, 1875, graduating from Germantown Academy in 1892, from Princeton University in 1896 and from the General Theological Seminary in 1899, in which year he was made Deacon and ordained to the Priesthood the year following by Bishop Scarborough. His whole Ministry was spent in the Diocese of New Jersey at All Saints, Trenton, where he was Rector from 1900 to 1931, when the Church became the Pro-Cathedral and he was elected Dean. He was consecrated Bishop on November 11, 1932, by Bishops Perry, Matthews and Knight. He was Chairman of the Board of Examining Chaplains, and of the Finance Commission, and a member of the Cathedral Foundation.

SAMUEL BABCOCK BOOTH, Fifth Bishop of Vermont, died June 17, 1935, in the fifty-second year of his age. He was born in Roxborough, Philadelphia, October 29, 1883, receiving his early education at William Penn Charter School and at Harvard University, and at The Theological Seminary in Alexandria. He was made Deacon in 1910 and ordained to the Priesthood in 1911, being in charge of Grace Church, Nampa, and of Saint David's Church, Caldwell, Idaho, from 1910 to 1914, serving part of the time also as Archdeacon of Idaho. In 1915 he came to this Diocese as Rector of Saint Luke's Church, Kensington, acting also as a Red Cross Chaplain overseas in 1918. During 1919 and 1920 he was Assistant to the Vicar at Saint Mary's Pro-Cathedral, when he went to Bucks County to take charge of the Country Centre Mission. He was consecrated Bishop Coadjutor of Vermont by Bishops Hall, Parker and Perry on February 17, 1925, becoming Diocesan at the death of Bishop Hall February 26, 1930. He had just completed a Visitation of the European Churches for the Presiding Bishop.

WALTER TAYLOR SUMNER, Fourth Bishop of Oregon, died suddenly on September 4, 1935, in his sixty-second year. He was born in Manchester, New Hampshire, on December 5, 1873, graduating from Dartmouth College in 1898. Brought up in the Baptist Church, he was confirmed in Chicago while Choirmaster in one of our Churches. After a short business experience, coupled with very great interest in civic and social matters, he decided to study for the Ministry and graduated from the Western Theological Seminary in 1903. He was made Deacon that year and ordained to the Priesthood the year following. From 1904 to 1906 he was Secretary to the Bishop of Chicago and in charge of Saint George's Mission, when he became Dean of the Cathedral in Chicago and Superintendent of the City Missions, serving as Deputy to the General Convention in 1910. He was consecrated Bishop of Oregon on January 6, 1915, by Bishops Anderson, W. A. Leonard and White. His Episcopate was marked by splendid Diocesan growth in both spiritual and material affairs. He always retained his active interest in matters not directly included in his Ecclesiastical duties, serving on many Committees and Commissions, and receiving the Order of Knight of The Holy Sepulchre from the Patriarch of Jerusalem for his work in behalf of the Greeks in the Diocese as well as the Russians and Serbs.

M. EDWARD FAWCETT, Third Bishop of Quincy, died at his home on September 17, 1935, in the sixty-ninth year of his age. He was born in New Hartford, Iowa, on November 1, 1865, receiving his early education at Upper Iowa University, where he graduated in 1886 and at Garrett Biblical Institute. He entered into the Ministry of the Methodist Church, following his father's example; but in 1897 was made Deacon by the Bishop of Chicago and ordained to the Priesthood the same year. From 1897 to 1901 he was in charge of the Church

A notable preacher and author, his position in the Church was of outstanding value and usefulness.

REGINALD HEBER WELLER, Third Bishop of Fond du Lac, Retired, died on November 22, 1935, at Copley Hospital, Aurora, Illinois, in the seventy-ninth year of his age. A highly esteemed member of the House of Bishops, he was sent to the World Conference on Faith and Order and as a Deputy to the Lausanne Conference. On account of failing health he retired in 1932. A true Southern Gentleman with all that term implies, of intense loyalty, a humble and devout Christian and Pastor, an inspired Prophet of deep intellectual and spiritual perception, with keen insight of human nature and a splendid gift of oratory, he was greatly in demand as a leader of Retreats and a helpful preacher in all parts of the Church.

LEMUEL HENRY WELLS, Retired Bishop of Spokane, died at Tacoma, Washington, on March 27, 1936, in the ninety-fifth year of his age. He was Senior Bishop of the Church and of the Anglican Communion. Of the wonderful work which he accomplished, both as Missionary of this Church and in founding the National Church of Japan, too much cannot be said. His influence extended throughout the whole country in many ways, and he was the recipient of many honors. The prompt rehabilitation after the great earthquake and especially at Saint Luke's Hospital is a splendid proof of his effective planning and toil.

The Standing Committee received with regret the resignation of Mr. William W. "Your resignation was presented, as you requested, at the last meeting of the Standing Committee. We were informed by Dr. Jefferys that it would be a relief to your mind to have it promptly acted upon. Your resignation was therefore accepted, but with our sincerest regret. During your illness, which you have borne with such high courage, we have missed you greatly from our meetings, both personally and as our Secretary. Your long, faithful and competent association with the Standing Committee has endeared you to us all, and we feel that your efficient work and wise counsel through so many years richly deserves our gratitude to you, which we assure you is very real. The Committee begs to report that on Tuesday, April 7th, there was submitted to the Standing Committee a request from the Memorial Church of St. Paul, Overbrook, for approval of amendments to its Charter. On Tuesday, May 5th, the Standing Committee received from its sub-committee on charters a report dealing with this request. This report was accepted by the Standing Committee, and the Secretary was instructed to incorporate the same in the Annual Report of the Committee to the Convention to the end that the Convention and the constituent Parishes may be advised that the procedure called for by the Constitution and Canons of the Church and by the laws of the State must be followed exactly; to the end that actions of Vestries may not be invalidated by reason of any irregularity as to their legal authority which might result from failure to observe the procedure thus prescribed. This report was as follows:

Your Committee on Charters to whom at your meeting on April 7 was referred the amendments to the Charter of the Memorial Church of St. Paul, Overbrook, beg to report as follows:

1. We recommend that the Standing Committee give "their approval" to the substance of the amendments as submitted by the Vestry of the above named Church.

2. In doing so, however, we call attention to a serious mistake in the procedure that has been followed by the Vestry of St. Paul's Church. Canon I, Section II, sub-section 1 of the Canons of the Diocese reads as follows:

"No proposed amendment or alteration of the Articles of Association of an unincorporated Church or Congregation, which has been admitted into union with the Convention in this Diocese, shall be adopted, nor shall any proposed amendment or alteration of the Charter of an incorporated Church or Congregation, which has been admitted into union with the Convention in this Diocese, be presented to any Court for approval, nor shall any such Church or Congregation amend its Charter by By-law, until, in every such case, the proposed amendment or alteration shall have been submitted to the Bishop and Standing Committee for their approval or disapproval, referred to the Committee on Charters, and after report thereon by the latter Committee has been approved by the Convention."

The documents submitted to us indicate that these amendments were presented to and approved by the court in January last; and that presumably an election of vestrymen was held under the Charter thus amended in February: such steps having been consummated before the amendments were submitted to the Standing Committee or, apparently, to the Bishop or the Committee on Charters of the Convention, and consequently before they were reported to and approved by the Convention of the Diocese.

PARKER S. WILLIAMS,
SPENCER ERVIN,
GEORGE G. BARTLETT,
Committee on Charters of the Standing Committee.

The report of the auditor employed by the Diocese to audit and report on the various funds in the Diocese, Mr. Charles S. Rockey, submitted his report, which was submitted to the Standing Committee's Budget Committee for action if necessary and filing.

Respectfully submitted,
WILLIAM P. BARBA,
Secretary.

APPENDIX F

Report of the Executive Council for 1935

The year 1935 ended with the Diocese in improved financial condition. The overdraft, which had stood at $24,949.16 in January, 1935, was $7,019.19 in January, 1936. It should be understood that this improvement was effected only by determined effort and that it involved many undesirable, indeed crippling, curtailments.

The business depression has stimulated improvements in organization and supervision, in the Diocese as elsewhere. An important reorganization of the Department of Property was initiated in 1935, but as it did not become effective until 1936 it will be described in next year's Report. Mortgages are being reduced or paid off as funds or gifts permit, and there is a determination, originated by the Bishop of the Diocese, that no more mortgages shall be created.

This Diocese is a large one. On the business side it will need the continued assistance of volunteer clergy and laity for the analysis and solution of its problems, and in the not distant future a larger permanent staff to carry out their decisions and to conduct the large amount of routine work. In the past year a number of new men of ability have been added to its councils. There is always room for more.

Visitors to Church House will have noticed that the large room on the ground floor has been restored to its original condition by the removal of a partition, thus permitting its use for large meetings and social gatherings.

The Reports of the Departments of the Council follow.

SPENCER ERVIN,
Vice-President

THE FIELD DEPARTMENT

The activities of the past year have been confined to the routine work of promoting the Every Member Canvass. There was one piece of literature published containing information regarding the disposition of the Missionary Dollar. There were 25,000 copies distributed.

The Department is confronted with the situation that more and continuous work should be done to promote interest in the Missionary work of the Church. The Diocese enjoys a very envious reputation for Missionary giving, and if we are to continue to enjoy the coveted position, constant ground work should be done. At the present time the Diocese maintains this position due to the generous liberality of the Diocesan Givers. What should be considered as a source of help for emergencies has become an annual appeal. This is not sound procedure for the following reasons: first, it is too uncertain in that it depends upon too few persons; secondly, it uses funds that should be used for advance work at home and abroad. The answer to this situation is to be found in an increase of Missionary giving on the part of the entire membership. This is the ideal way in which to support the Church. We should always have a number of Givers.

This means that more and varied appeals must be made to engage the interest of all people—the usual methods will not answer in time of questioning and parochial stress. We appeal for a full time Field Worker, whose time will be engaged with the specific duty of developing ways and means of interesting people in the work of the Church at home and abroad.

As for the future—we are challenged now with assisting in the plans for the Whitsunday Offering. The Diocese has assumed 10 per cent as its share of the $127,000.00 National Church deficit. This will be pledged that the work may not fail.

C. E. SNOWDEN,
Chairman, Field Department

FINANCE DEPARTMENT

The regular monthly meetings of the Finance Department are now held at 10 A. M. instead of 10:30, but notwithstanding the change there is a comparatively good attendance and increasing interest.

It has been only through intensive study and much effort that we were able to raise sufficient income to meet our Budget for 1935 with the General Church and the Diocese and also to reduce our overdraft which we have been able to do to the extent of $17,929.97.

Our problem is in securing expectations from Parishes and Missions more nearly in keeping with our Budget.

Under the Canons on financial safeguards the Department is endeavoring to secure from organizations and institutions, except Parishes and Missions, declarations of willingness to be bound by the present and future canons covering financial safeguards. The Committee sent out two forms, one for corporations and one for unincorporated organizations. To date, April 6, 1936, declarations of willingness have been received from twenty-eight organizations and satisfactory reasons shown in the case of three others, why no declaration should be made. From sixteen organizations no replies have been received and in the case of seventeen it has been decided that because they are already under Diocesan control no declaration is necessary. When this work is complete it should be of great benefit in the future of the Diocese.

JOSHUA ASH PEARSON,
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF PROPERTY

This Department had been confining its attention to the Church House and Bishop's Residence. The Department, however, has been reconstituted and the scope of its duties greatly enlarged. In addition to the two properties above all Missions and Aided Parish properties, numbering about 90, come within the survey of this Department as to payment of taxes, water rents, interest on mortgages, etc. Its membership has also been enlarged to include a representative from each Convocation and the Church Foundation. An intensive study is being made of the mortgage situation and it is hoped there will be some improvement in this direction during the year 1936.

LARDNER HOWELL,
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

The Report of this Department for 1933 (Jnl. 1934, p. 291) shows that under Resolutions adopted in that year it was intended to present in 1934, and thereafter, descriptive histories of the missions of the Diocese such as might be a basis for decisions on policy and a means of informing our communicants. The pressure of the business depression, and other uncontrollable circumstances, have prevented this presentation. But there can be no doubt of its value, and it is to be hoped that the future may see it done.

Government in America is largely absolved from ordinary business rules. The City of Philadelphia sends out no tax bills, perhaps in order to conserve the time of its tax clerks for efforts more interesting politically. In the past two years the Department of Missions has been presented with not a few tax bills against mission properties showing arrears and penalties. The ultimate fault, whatever the deficiencies of City Hall, was of course an uncertain responsibility. The Department has aided in the adoption of measures for prompt payment of tax bills in future.

The Department called the attention of Convention of 1935 to the fact that some parishes fail to pay over to the Diocese moneys collected for missions in the red side of duplex envelopes. Convention adopted a Standing Resolution on the subject (Jnl. 1935, p. 45).

The Mission of The Beloved Disciple has replaced the Parish of St. John the Divine. Proceedings for the dissolution of the parish corporation were begun in 1935 but at this writing have not been completed. The Evangelical Education Society held a mortgage on the parish property which it became desirable to discharge. Interest on the mortgage was much in arrears. The Society generously accepted $5,000 in full settlement for principal and arrears of interest. Funds for the settlement were provided by the Bishop of Pennsylvania, under an agreement with the Dioceses recorded in the minutes of the Executive Council for January, 1936, by which the Diocese will pay for ten years $500 a year out of its missionary funds into a permanent fund for the benefit of diocesan missions.

Emmanual Mission at Quakertown has been transferred from the care of Germantown Convocation to that of Norristown under an agreement between the two Convocations made with the approval of the Bishop.

Changes in the personnel of missions in the Diocese in 1935 have been as follows:

The Rev. Charles Arnold Levy to the New Mission of the Beloved Disciple, West Philadelphia.

The Rev. J. Aubrey Cragg to Emmanual, Quakertown and Holy Trinity, Lansdale, replacing the Rev. Mr. Wilkie at both places.

The Rev. Walter Williamson Gale, already in charge of Atonement Morton, to take also St. Martin's, Marcus Hook (a parish), replacing the Rev. Carl L. Appelberg, resigned.

The Rev. Walter Cresson Pugh to St. Andrew's, Yardley, replacing the Rev. F. B. Barnett, resigned.

The Rev. Leonard J. Sachs, to St. George's, Venango, replacing the Rev. F. B. Barnett, resigned.

The Rev. Cedric Earl Mills has resigned from the care of St. Mary's, Chester, and has been replaced by Mr. Matthew Davis, lay-reader.

The Rev. George Stewart McKinley, already in charge of St. Mark's, Honeybrook, and of St. John's, Compass, to take charge also of St. Mary's, Warwick, replacing the Rev. Frederick B. Hornby, resigned. Mr. Hornby has taken charge of St. Luke, Chester, and St. Luke, Eddystone, instead of the Rev. Joseph Hall Morris, who has gone to the Chapel of the Prince of Peace, Philadelphia.

The Rev. James N. Deaver, of St. Christopher's, Philadelphia, and St. Paul's, North Penn, resigned from St. Paul's and has been replaced there by a lay-reader.

The Rev. George R. Gibbs, to be priest-in-charge of Ascension Mission, Rhawnhurst.

THE CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

The keynote of the missionary work in the Convocation of Chester for the past year was progress. One new church building erected and dedicated; one new parish house started; the gifts of the parishes and missions increased by nearly $10,000.

At Aronomink, the Holy Comforter congregation is now worshipping in a very attractive and churchly building. The members of the church have taken renewed hope and this hope has translated itself into increased interest and enthusiasm for the church.

At St. Faith's, Brookline, a new parish house is being added to the little Chapel at a cost of $8,000. This money has been raised from the following sources:

From the congregation	$2,500.00
From the Church Extension	2,000.00
From the Woman's Auxiliary	2,000.00
From the Advancement Society	500.00
From Bishop Taitt	1,000.00

This building will give the necessary room that the increased growth of the congregation needs, adequate room for the Sunday School and a place of entertainments and suppers. The growth of this Mission in the past five years has been outstanding and is due entirely to the untiring efforts of the missionary in charge, the Rev. William Powell.

Several changes were made in the personnel of our missionaries during the year. The Rev. Frederick B. Hornby was placed in charge of St. Luke's, Eddystone, and St. Luke's, Chester. His place at St. Mary's, Warwick, was added to the care of the Rev. George McKinley. By having the service at St. Mary's at nine o'clock in the morning this plan is working out very nicely.

The colored work of the Convocation is in charge of the Rev. Harry Paynter at Coatesville; the Rev. Cedric Mills at Ascension, West Chester, and Mr. Matthew Davis in charge of St. Mary's, Chester, under the supervision of the Rev. Stanley Wilcox.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation of Chester has had a change in leaders. Mrs. Shreiner served as President for the full five years, which is the maximum service. We are fortunate, indeed to elect Mrs. William H. Jefferys, wife of the head of the City Mission, to this important post. We all recognize that much of the progress in our missionary work is due to our Auxiliary, which gives us at least $2,000 a year toward a new building or toward the reduction of a mortgage for one of our Missions, always with the understanding that the Mission will raise a like amount. What a blessing such an Auxiliary is.

CHARLES W. SHREINER,
Dean

CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

Missionary work in the Convocation of Germantown made real advances during the year 1935. No new mission was opened but several already established were strengthened by giving them full time oversight. Ascension, Rhawnhurst, has taken on new life under the leadership of the Rev. George L. Gibbs, who is in residence there and ministers to them regularly. By the aid of a good Executive Council Committee their tax indebtedness has been wiped out and they started the year 1936 with a clean slate and renewed energy. New houses are again being erected in the community and there is every prospect of steady growth in the mission.

The Mission at Morrisville has been busy paying off back debts and putting its physical property into better condition. The Community House is now under the direction of a Diocesan Committee, with direct supervision of the Priest-in-Charge of the mission, and the plan is working out better than our old method.

Messiah, Oxford Circle, again presented several large classes for Confirmation. They report steady progress in attendance and in community activities. One secret in their growth is the fact that they give generously to causes other than their own mission. They, too, faced a large tax debt, due to the fact that the Chancellor of the Diocese informed them that they would have to pay back taxes on "excess ground," i. e., ground not now being used but which will be used for our Church plant in the future. By means of some Diocesan funds, the generosity of an official of the Diocese, plus their own efforts, this tax debt is no longer a bugbear.

St. Andrew in the Fields, Somerton, should be moved to a more advantageous site. No growth can be expected while the mission building remains off from the community, in the woods. The matter is now under consideration and action will probably be taken very soon.

St. Andrew's, Yardley, has renovated its rectory and made it livable. It has also renewed its Church heating system. Due to the repairs, the Priest-in-Charge and his family were able to remain in their rectory home during the bitter winter months and were comfortable. St. Andrew's is exerting a quiet, potent influence in its territory and we look for steady, unspectacular, permanent growth there.

St. Gabriel's, Feltonville, continues to grow. Last Spring they celebrated their fifteenth year under the care of the Rev. William Metz. His long, faithful service has meant much. But now is the time to do something about the mission. Diocesan authorities, together with representatives of St. Gabriel's, should meet together and work out permanent, revised building plans for the mission. Then they should get busy—at once!

Perhaps the tiniest unit of our diocesan work is that maintained at Dolington. It is a Sunday School in our own building, under the care of the Rev. Mr. Parker and the direct supervision of Mr. Ellis, of Newtown. Mr. Ellis not only gathers in the children and conducts the school but also visits among the people. We owe him much thanks.

The Country Center Mission is almost a Convocation in itself, when one thinks of the number of stations cared for. Langhorne, Hulmeville, Wrightstown, Edgely, New Hope, Buckingham, Solebury and Dolington comprise the missions under the care of Mr. Parker and his associates. Statistics given below indicate something of what is being done. The Convocation has given some attention to the Rectory properties during the year with a view to making our missionaries more comfortable. There should be a permanent Convocation Committee to watch over this matter from year to year.

The Convocation has continued to give generously for the forward work of the Church. Germantown not only paid its expectation for 1935, but gave several thousands more than it had promised. Its constituents also gave generously to the Diocesan Contributors' Fund.

The meetings of Convocation have been well attended and have received hospitable attention from their hosts. The Woman's Aid raised a large amount of money by means of a Garden Party and annual contributions, and in addition to aiding the Country Center Mission Automobile Fund, also gave $500 toward paying off $1,000 on the mortgage of St. Bartholomew's Church, Wissinoming. They promise to aid St. Stephen's, Bridesburg, by a $500 gift toward liquidating their mortgage this year.

The Dean desires to record his thanks for the hard work done by the men he has called on to help him with Convocational work. His Committees have been splendid in their co-operation.

Faithfully,

CHARLES E. EDER,
Dean

CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

Three notable developments in the work of the Convocation during the past year deserve special mention.

1. The first is the most satisfactory and encouraging growth of the work at Lansdale and Quakertown, under the leadership of the Rev. J. Aubrey Cragg, with the assistance of volunteer lay readers from St. Thomas Church, Whitemarsh, serving at Quakertown. There has been a real growth along every line, especially in Lansdale, where the opportunity for development is much larger than in Quakertown, although in the latter place, also, the work is increasing in effectiveness. Mr. Cragg's automobile has been a great help in pastoral work in both fields. This year Mr. Henry Springer has been engaged to serve as lay reader at Quakertown. The total receipts for all purposes in Lansdale have increased from $1,900 to $2,900 and the communicants from 154 to 166.

2. Similar conditions have prevailed at Willow Grove, under the leadership of the Rev. Robert P. Frazier, where growth and progress have been most encouraging along all lines. There the communicants have increased from 186 to 207 and the receipts for all purposes from $1,103 to $3,031. An increasing measure of self-support will undoubtedly result here in the next few years.

3. Epiphany Mission, Royersford, has carried on its work during the past year with no financial assistance from the Diocese. The Mission's portion of the support of the Rev. E. J. Harry has been wholly carried by them. Their contributions have increased to $1,019, a considerable advance over the previous year.

It is notable that in a year of severe financial handicaps the Missions of Convocation have increased their receipts for all purposes from $8,600 to $12,363, an increase of 50 per cent. Such a record speaks well for the devotion of the leaders and people of these Missions. Such loyalty is bound to bear fruit in a larger measure of self-support, thus releasing funds for work in other parts of the missionary field of the Church.

In concluding this twelfth and final report as Dean of the Convocation of Norristown, I would like to express hearty appreciation of the unfailing and willing co-operation which I have received from the clergy and people of the Convocation, which has enabled us to accomplish some substantial progress. During this period new parish houses have been built at Hatboro, Lansdale and Willow Grove, with the assistance of the Diocesan Campaign Fund, and the eight places, where the Convocation is supervising the work, are today in excellent condition. In all this, too much credit cannot be given to the splendid and generous labors of the Woman's Aid.

STANLEY R. WEST,
Dean

CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

Instead of making general statements relative to the Convocation I will quote for the information of the members of the Diocese from the annual report of our missionaries.

All Souls (for the Deaf)—Rev. Henry J. Pulver—"The Church has made a notable advance in Confirmations and the things of the spirit. We have had, however, a hard year financially. Were it not for a loan from the Diocesan Commission on Church work among the deaf, we would not have been able to pay our taxes. We are co-operating with all organizations in the State interested in deaf people in an effort to provide social security for the deaf, especially the aged and infirm."

St. Ambrose—Rev. Robert C. Hubbs—"We have paid off an additional $187.50 on the principal of the mortgage on the Parish House. The Every-Member Canvass resulted in a 30 per cent increase of users of the duplex envelopes. We made good our promise to contribute $550 toward the work of the Diocese and the general Church."

St. Augustine—Rev. Joseph H. Hudson—"We have caught the spirit of the 'Forward Movement' that is filling the Church today. There are many needs and necessary improvements to be made to our physical plant. The most urgent one is that of an entire new slate roof" (the previous year the Woman's Aid provided a new tar and gravel roof around the base of the slate roof).

St. Barnabas—Rev. Albert W. Eastburn—"On Easter even we baptized 38 persons, the oldest 76, the youngest 4 months old. Our daily vacation school had an enrollment of 110 and an average attendance of 94. At Christmas we gave 125 baskets to needy families, all of whom were investigated through the Basket Exchange. The Church Extension Fund, through the kind allocation of the Bishop and the Advancement Society, enabled us to place a new roof on the Church, remove the unsightly tower, and paint the exterior. The services of Miss Zettan Gordon, made possible by the Diocese during the latter part of the year, have been invaluable."

St. Bartholomew—Rev. Arthur C. Carty—"During the past year 284 meetings of organized work were held in the Parish House between Sundays, with a total attendance of 5,738. There were 123 Sunday services, with an attendance of 8,709. The Church School had 39 new enrollments during the year, and 40 rewards were given for 100 per cent attendance."

St. Christopher—Rev. James M. Deaver—"The people have manifested great interest but our limited space for work is a bit discouraging for the services and the Sunday School. It is not unusual to have our Chapel crowded to capacity (70). The matter of rent, which is $50 per month, has been my personal responsibility, save for one month in the summer, which was kindly paid by the Woman's Aid."

St. George, Richmond—Rev. A. J. Arkin—"While we have lost some by their moving to distant neighborhoods, the spirit of co-operation among the rank and file of our people has risen considerably. They raised $300 more than the previous year by special efforts."

St. George, Venango—Rev. Leonard J. Sachs—"The year was one of progress and encouragement. The regretted retirement of the Rev. Arnold H. Hord gave to the people a challenge to carry on and they have responded most earnestly. A notable improvement took place in our music. Fourteen additional young people are now members of our choir. On the first Sunday in Advent evening services were resumed, with an average attendance of about 30."

St. Mary of the Annunciation—Rev. Silvio G. Biagini—"At the initiative of a group of ladies of St. Luke's Church, Germantown, with the co-operation of the Women's Auxiliary of the Diocese and the Woman's Aid of the Convocation, sufficient funds were provided to replace the temporary roof, which was leaking badly, with a more permanent one. Our work is proceeding normally and the congregation comes to the Church with enthusiasm."

St. Paul's, North Penn—Louis W. Johnson, Lay Reader—"There are great prospects for development in this community and I feel sure that we shall have to have two confirmation classes this coming year. Because of the changes made in leadership (three within a year) a number of the members have become indifferent; but in time, no doubt, will rally round the faithful."

Hebrew Christian Synagogue—Miss Mary Ormsby in charge, Rev. C. Herbert Reese, Chairman, Commission of the Diocese. Weekly Bible Classes for Seniors, religious instruction classes for boys twice weekly. Classes in art and handicraft weekly. Social and religious classes twice monthly for High School girls. Miss Marjorie Baily, a graduate of the Church Training and Deaconess School, assisted during the fall months. Monthly meetings with the local branch of the Hebrew Christian Alliance. Annual Tea at the home of Mrs. George Breed a very helpful occasion. Christmas gifts were provided by Grace Church School, Mt. Airy, and refreshments furnished by our Woman's Committee. More boys are attending classes than at any time in the history of the work.

Advent and Holy Redeemer (Polish)—Rev. Edward M. Baczewski—"Owing to the illness of the Missionary at the time, no report was presented at the annual meeting of the Convocation. The work has been carried on with a fine spirit throughout the year and the members of the congregation at the Advent are rejoicing in their rebuilt Church, following the disastrous fire of last April."

Our Treasurer, Mr. Henry C. Lawser, has been in all ways most co-operative and helpful, has no separate report since the Diocese has transmitted funds direct to the missions. He has carried an open account for the Coal Fund of the Convocation, which received grants from the Woman's Aid and proceeds of a benefit, and sundry individual contributions, and was administered for the benefit of several of the Missions. The Executive Board of the Convocation held two meetings during the year and a Special Committee was appointed at the October meeting to assist the parishes and missions in the Every-Member Canvass. There was no convocational presentation service of the Lenten offering, but general participation in the Bishop's Day, which took the place of the presentation service.

Mrs. Paul F. Mowry has continued her excellent leadership of the Woman's Aid and Miss Esther Ball, her successor in the office of Treasurer, has rendered faithful service. Her report is appended herewith.

Miss Katharine Childs has continued in the office of Secretary with quiet effectiveness.

Through the courtesy of the late Caspar Haines and Miss Haines, the beautiful grounds of "Wyck" were again made available to the Woman's Aid and the Convocation for a Garden Party in June. The occasion was a very happy and successful one, despite threatening weather.

It has been a pleasure throughout the year to have been able to take occasional services at the various missions and I am glad to add my commendation of the whole-hearted and self-sacrificing spirit which is being manifested by those responsible for the missionary work throughout the Convocation.

CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

The Convocation of South Philadelphia had two meetings during the year, one at St. Peter's Church, Third and Pine Streets, and the other at Holy Trinity Memorial Chapel. Both were well attended and a real interest was shown in the work of the Church.

Our expectation for the year was $38,310, but we paid $40,049.77. We gave to the Diocesan Contributors' Fund $6,085, and in "specials" $9,389.36, a total of $55,524.13. As we received for the work of the Convocation $5,357.75, it is evident we are a real help to the work of the Church.

Concerning the work of L'Emmanuello, the Rev. Thomas E. Della Cioppa writes: "Since the work was transferred to St. Elisabeth's Church on February 16, 1929, the number of communicants as well as the Sunday School children is more than double. The young people (Italian) are now identified with the American parishioners and so St. Elisabeth's is practically becoming a parish of American-born people of Italian blood."

"These two groups, the natives and the foreign-born, are learning to live and worship together in harmony and love and are both eager to make this parish very successful."

The Mission of the Holy Spirit, under the Rev. Arthur Moore, is doing good work, especially with children. There are on the roll 151 children. He writes: "Our hope for future growth of the congregation depends upon our training of the children and the gradual increase of confidence which the parents may place in us. With the aid of workers from the Armstrong Association we are organizing clubs among the young people with character building as the fundamental aim."

The Mission of the Transfiguration is now under my supervision. Mr. Archie Montgomery, a devoted layman, found it impossible to continue as lay reader. We are grateful to him for his service and the help given the mission. At present we have a Divinity School student, Mr. Gustav C. Meckling, taking the service and looking after the Church School. With the help of two students from the Church Training and Deaconess House and three teachers from All Saints, Moyamensing, we are giving the children some real Church instruction. How I wish we had the money to employ a woman who could give all her time to the work and to the need of that neighborhood. Thanks to the Woman's Aid I have been able to make some needed repairs and to have the parish building repainted.

The Woman's Aid, under the presidency of Mrs. Frederick Fox, has had a successful year. The work at the Philadelphia General Hospital and among the shut-ins, and the interest in the Educational Week for the Blind is well worth while.

I am grateful to the clergy, laymen and women for their co-operation for the year 1935.

Dean

CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

In these days when even large parishes are facing great difficulties in carrying on their work, it is only natural to expect that our mission stations will be even more seriously affected. Yet, in spite of great difficulties the missionary work in the Convocation of West Philadelphia is, on the whole, more than holding its own. There are instances of notable progress and other instances where we must seriously consider the extent and character of the missionary work that should be done. The missionaries have shown a fine spirit of co-operation and a readiness to follow any suggestions giving hope of advancement.

At the Beloved Disciple there are many evidences that the people are rallying to the support of the mission and increasing interest in the work is being shown. It has been a profitable year in many ways. The future is bright.

The renovation of the first floor at St. Monica's was completed during the year and the new concrete floor has successfully relieved the flooding with water which previously took place. These improvements have doubled the capacity of the building for real use and have given a new interest to the people.

There is a splendid and aggressive spirit being shown by the people at St. Cyprian's Mission. Stimulated by the completion during the year of a satisfactory heating plant, the members are now eagerly planning and looking forward to the time when they may have a chapel devoted exclusively to worship, and not, as at the present time, shared with all manner of entertainments, parochial and organization gatherings. When the time is ripe they will do their part to this end.

There are signs of new interest and life at St. Titus' Mission. The men of the mission have made necessary changes to the heating plant and a new iron fence has been built around the property. Through the kindness of the Bishop the 1936 January Extension Call has been allocated to St. Titus' for additional rooms. The Advancement Society has graciously consented to pay the last $500 of the cost of these extensions. We are very hopeful of the future for this mission and the people will respond generously to the encouragement being given them by the Bishop and the Diocese.

We are facing a very serious problem at St. Francis of Assisi. Under present conditions this particular work is not proving satisfactory. A new study will have to be made of the need of the Italians of this section of the city and, if possible, a more adequate solution found for them.

Much of the credit for the new life in the missionary work of the Convocation is to be given to the splendid work done by the Woman's Aid to the Convocation. These good women, under the leadership of Mrs. C. Frank Miller, have gone into each mission; they have entered into its life and through wise counsel have guided the people into new endeavors. The missionaries cannot speak too highly of the assistance given them through the Woman's Aid. The condensed report of the Woman's Aid which follows gives a glimpse of the scope of the work being done.

In its total givings the Convocation exceeded its expectations by almost $2,000 for 1935 and looks forward with confidence to 1936. The clergy of the Convocation are more than anxious to co-operate in every possible way to the end that the Convocation might make a satisfactory accounting of its stewardship to the Bishop and to the Diocese.

The Dean wishes to express his grateful appreciation to all for kindly and sympathetic participation in the work.

GRANVILLE TAYLOR,
Dean

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO THE CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

The Woman's Aid to the Convocation of West Philadelphia accomplished many things during the year 1935. The officers and chairmen of the several committees have been in close touch with the work and have visited the missions quite frequently.

Splendid work has been done under the leadership of our Missionary Committee, of which Mrs. August Rosehill is chairman. The missionary needs have been studied and many of them satisfied: three Young People's groups have been organized; a heating plant repaired at the cost of $119; vestments secured for three choirs; repairs to a kitchen; painting of walls of a church and parish house, etc.

The Social Service Committee, under the leadership of Mrs. R. C. Loving, gave much relief to the sick and the needy; coal, clothing, food, milk and one emergency brace. Christmas cheer and food was provided for 40 families of our missions through Christmas baskets.

Mrs. R. K. Cleborne, chairman of the "Ways and Means" Committee, has done a splendid piece of work in providing funds to meet the needs of the several committees.

Miss Ethel E. Pancoast, Vice-President; Mrs. M. B. Carson, our Treasurer and Educational Secretary, and Mrs. John G. Hooven, Secretary, have been most faithful in the performance of their duties.

To all of my associates in this work I express my deepest thanks.

ALICE M. MILLER,
President

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICITY

It is a pleasure to report to the Council that during the past year the Department of Publicity has again given evidence of its continuing usefulness as a service unit of the Council and the Diocese. It is this service feature that the Chairman would emphasize in presenting this review of the year's operation.

Entirely apart from its function in the special field of publicity and its relations with the secular and Church press, it is being more and more developed as a Department which is called upon to give a personalized service that covers a much larger and a greater variety of detail than might be comprehended by those who are unfamiliar with its administration. It is being utilized more and more by our Clergy and by our organizations and by individual members of our laity in many other ways than in the service of publicity. It would be difficult in the limitations of this report to list the many and varied types of personal service which the Department gives to everyone who seeks its aid or its advice and counsel, other than in a general way, and to note also the reaction to its service as attested by those whom it serves.

The Chairman has been frequently told by his brethren of the Clergy and also by members of the laity that they have found the Department to be one of the most useful to them in many different ways and that there is no service they ask that is not cheerfully and promptly given. In its operation it may be said that there is probably no unit of the Council which comes into personal contact and relationship with more Clergy and laymen and laywomen of the Diocese than does this Department, and your Chairman has yet to hear of any failure on the part of the Department to fulfill any service it has been called upon to give. Members of the various Departments of the Council also have frequently testified to the service the Department has given. In previous reports the Chairman has touched on the "service feature" of the Department but he feels in this report it should be given more emphasis and that the Council should know that it is in this "service feature" the Chairman and his associates feel the Department is making what is probably its greatest contribution.

The Chairman does not think it necessary to touch upon the work of the Department in its special field of publicity, other than to reiterate that it is performing its duties in the same satisfactory manner as in previous years. The Chairman does feel, however, that the Council should again be informed that it is considered by the Church press generally and by the secular newspapers and press associations which it serves as being among the most competent in the Church. It has established relationship with the newspapers and press associations in this Diocese that makes for better and more accurate reporting of Church news and there is rarely an instance when the newspapers fail to accept the judgment of the Department in their handling of all news of the Church originating in the Diocese. The great bulk of the news relating to the Church in the Diocese is furnished to the newspapers by the Department direct. The Chairman at this point desires to express a word of commendation for the co-operation given the Director of the Department by Miss Miriam V. Cairns during the year and also for the interest shown by Mrs. Edith T. Wiegand in the business management of THE CHURCH NEWS.

The Church News

In reporting on the operation of THE CHURCH NEWS the Chairman would call attention to the fact that next October will mark the twenty-fifth anniversary of the first issue of the paper. During this quarter century it has been continuously published without a break. It has faced many difficulties but has survived. During the past six years of strained economic conditions many Diocesan publications have been forced to suspend. THE CHURCH NEWS has carried on with but a succession of small deficits, all of which it has been able to absorb from its reserve built up during the period from 1922 to 1929. Its deficit for the fiscal year July 1, 1934, to June 30, 1935, was $248.71. Since 1922 THE CHURCH NEWS has been self-supporting. It is solvent today and has no debts other than current obligations. It is still hopeful that it will be able to carry on with no appeal for Diocesan aid. It has been blessed through the continued support which a number of its advertisers have given. Its chief need at present is an increase in subscribers. The management is looking forward to the publication of a special anniversary number next October if conditions will permit, and it is hoped that the beginning of the second quarter century of its existence may be made the means and provide the opportunity for an increased circulation in the homes of our people.

Church Extension Fund

For the thirteenth year in succession the Department has had the privilege of preparing and publishing the Bishop's Calls to the members of the Church Extension Fund. During the year 1935 the total income from the three Calls, plus delayed payments in 1934 from previous Calls, amounted to $6,005.49, as compared with a total of $6,427.50 received in 1934. In last year's report attention was called to the decreasing income which the Fund was experiencing from its former peak of approximately $12,000 of some years ago, and it was recommended that the Department of Mission give consideration to some plans for increasing the income. As members may subscribe as little as 50 cents a Call it is believed that if a concerted effort was made the income could be easily increased, especially when it is recognized the money is used by the Bishop for work within the Diocese. The Calls in 1935 designated as beneficiaries St. Cyprian and St. Monica; St. Faith, Brookline; St. Barnabas, Kensington.

Use of Church House

Allocation of rooms in the Church House for the many meetings which are held there during the year continued to be part of the Department's duties, together with maintenance of a record of all such meetings. During the year a total of 500 meetings of all kinds were held compared with 517 in 1934. It may again be noted that the total covers only about nine months as between the middle of June and the middle of September comparatively few meetings were held in the Church House. In September the partition which shut off the front part of the Assembly Room was removed and made it possible for the room to be again used for meetings. The Bishop's luncheons to his Clergy, which had been previously given elsewhere, returned to the Church House. Removal of the partition also made it possible for use of the room by other large gatherings where the attendance ranged from 100 to 150 people.

CHARLES H. LONG,
Chairman.

COMMISSION ON RECRUITING FOR THE MINISTRY

The Commission made grants during the past year to eleven young men who were in various Theological Seminaries of the Church studying for Holy Orders. The amount of money expended by the Diocese was $1,890. These figures represent the smallest number of students aided and the least amount of money granted for many years. Fortunately, for the future leadership of the Church, they do not convey the whole story as to the number of young men in the Diocese preparing for the ministry. Some students are able to bear full responsibility for the financial side of their education, while others are receiving aid from individuals who desire to help the Church in this way, and still others are being aided by their Parishes. The Commission is concerned, however, as to the smaller number of young men offering themselves for the ministry and the inadequate sum of money that the Diocese can afford to allocate at this time to this most important part of the Church's work. Plans are being prepared to place before the young men of our Diocese the call of our Lord to the ministry in His Church and it is hoped that the low spot in the giving of the people of the Diocese has been reached so that a larger sum may be granted this important work of the Church.

JAMES M. NIBLO,
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

In 1935 the three chief activities of the Department were the maintaining of the office, the field work and the Normal School.

Room 30 was open daily for nine and one-half months from 9 A. M. to 4.30, and from 9 to 12 on Saturdays, with Miss Gertrude Brodhead continuing as the office secretary.

There has been a steady growth in the past few years in the number of visitors and the number of parishes and missions using the resources of the Department. In 1935, exclusive of those who came for meetings and conferences, 1,386 visitors were recorded, and working contacts with 154 of the nearly 200 church schools in the Diocese. The use of the library, stimulated by the Normal School, has increased encouragingly, there being usually from 90 to 100 books in circulation.

Miss Elizabeth Frazier continued her excellent field work, spending 3 or 4 weeks at a time in 8 parishes and visiting 6 others for one Sunday. In addition she held 260 office conferences, addressed and conferred with 29 group meetings throughout the Diocese, attended all the Teacher Training and Church School Commission meetings and most of the Children's Section meetings of the Philadelphia Council of Christian Education, and taught courses at the Church Training and the Diocesan Normal Schools.

The Department met seven times during the year with an average attendance of 13 members. The officers are the Rev. Louis W. Pitt, Chairman, and the Rev. J. Jarden Guenther, Secretary. The chairmen of its commissions are:

Adult—None.
Church School—Rev. Philip H. Steinmetz, appointed in January
Student—Rev. Howard W. Fulweiler.
Teacher Training—Dean Ethel M. Springer, appointed in October on the resignation of the Rev. W. H. Pickford.
Young People—Rev. Leicester C. Lewis, Ph.D.

Adult Commission

While this commission has not functioned as such, a certain amount of adult work was carried on through Normal School classes, through the sale of the Forward Movement literature and the lending of books in co-operation with the Woman's Auxiliary for mission study and parent education.

Church School Commission

This commission's first activity was the promotion of the Lenten Offering, which totalled $42,827.74, an increase of $1,141.95 over 1934. A helpful supplementary folder to the National Department's Lenten material, called "Suggestions for Lent," was prepared and distributed to the church schools. In May, instead of a Diocesan Lenten Offering service a "Bishop's Day" was held. There was a service of worship, an address by the Bishop and a chance to meet him and to see the Church House. In the Library was an exhibit of various work done in church schools during the year.

Publicity was issued for the Interdenominational Vacation Church School Institute and a conference on Vacation Church Schools was held at the Church House.

Two-thirds of the church schools of the Diocese replied to a questionnaire sent out to discover what the schools were doing and how the commission could be of the most help. A summary of findings and some comments was published in the December CHURCH NEWS. Reprints of this article have been distributed and additional copies are available in Room 30, Church House.

The main work during the fall was the promotion of the Advent Offering. Two projects were selected, work for children in the Episcopal Hospital and automobiles for missionaries in the Diocese. The amount of the offering and the number of parishes participating has increased each year since 1933. A letter of thanks was received from one of the missionaries and given publicity in the CHURCH NEWS.

A study of curriculum materials with a view to issuing a brief and practical guide for rectors pressed for time has been undertaken, which guide should be ready before the summer of 1936.

Mrs. Robert King, who served as Christmas Box Secretary, reported a total of 3,265 gifts and $44.84 contributed by 63 parishes to 33 foreign, domestic and diocesan missions.

Student Commission

Mr. Fulweiler, who is also chairman of the Student Lenten Offering Commission of the Province, sent lists of students of this Diocese in the fall to their chaplains at 108 institutions. In Lent each student received a letter from the Bishop.

In May a conference for Student Pastors was held at Christ Church, Media, with an address by the Rev. T. O. Wedel, Ph.D.

Student work is being continued in the educational institution of the Diocese.

Teacher Training Commission

The 65th Annual Church School Institute was held in October, with the Rev. D. A. McGregor, Ph.D., and the Rev. Vernon C. McMaster of the National Department as two of the leaders. The Diocesan Normal School in its spring semester of five weeks had a registration of 220 students from 62 parishes, and in the fall term of ten weeks 148 students from 58 parishes. The Commission feels that every church school in the Diocese should be represented at the Normal School, which the instructors and students alike find helpful and enjoyable.

Commission on Young People

The interest of the Commission this year has been centered in the development of a general Church consciousness among our young people, which will not destroy but definitely transcend the limitations of separate group lines. Hence a service was held at Holy Trinity Church, Philadelphia, in the autumn at which Dr. McGregor of the National Department preached. This was a service for representatives of all the youth organizations of the Diocese, and between five and six hundred were present. Dr. Lewis had consultations with Dr. McGregor and Mr. Charles Wood, National President of the Y. P. F., in regard to further development along these lines. It was the general feeling that at present it was better to work along with the Forward Movement in its own endeavor for young people.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL SERVICE AND INSTITUTIONS

Your Department of Christian Social Service and Institutions takes pleasure in recording the fact that the continuous and continuing interest of the members has enabled it to do a helpful year's work. The amount of earnest volunteer effort deserves to be recorded, especially in connection with work among children. Few realize the extent of child welfare work carried on within the Diocese in the name of the Church. There are nine agencies: the Burd School, the Church Home, the Church Farm School, the Church Mission of Help, the Home of the Merciful Saviour, the House of the Holy Child, St. Michael's, the Children's Committee of the City Mission and Sheltering Arms.

Although only two of these agencies receive direct diocesan appropriations annually, all of them are dependent to a greater or less degree upon the financial support of our Church people. An efficient committee of the Department is at work bringing these various institutions into closer and more effective co-operation. This committee which is a representative one, is continuing its activities and extending its numbers with the hope that in time all of the nine agencies will be working together more effectively for their wards.

An important piece of work was done in the preparation of a leaflet giving the location and purposes of various institutions for the aged, for dependent children, for family relief, the handicapped, hospitals and other institutions operating under the name of, or in behalf of the Church. It also contained a list of the more important secular agencies. This leaflet has proved most helpful and has been received with gratitude by the clergy and Church social workers in general.

Two meetings of the Department were held in the institutions, one at S. Michael's and All Angels, and one at Christ Church Hospital. A visit was also made to the city institutions at Holmesburg: the Home for Indigent and the House of Correction.

Thanks to the generosity of a former member of the Department, an active campaign to give effect to the recommendations of General Convention with regard to objectionable motion pictures, was carried on through the various parishes. Churchmen were asked to sign a statement to the following effect:

"I wish to join the Legion of Decency, which condemns vile and unwholesome moving pictures. I unite with all who protest against them as a grave menace to youth, to home life, to country and to religion.

"I condemn absolutely those salacious motion pictures which, with other degrading agencies, are corrupting public morals and promoting a sex mania in our land.

"I shall do all that I can to arouse public opinion against the portrayal of vice as a normal condition of affairs, and against depicting of criminals of any class as heroes and heroines, presenting their filthy philosophy of life as something acceptable to decent men and women.

"I unite with all who condemn the display of suggestive advertisements on bill-boards, at theatre entrances and the favorable notices given to immoral motion pictures.

"Considering these evils, I will remain away from all motion pictures except those which I am assured do not offend decency and Christian morality. I will try to induce others to do the same.

"I make this protest in a spirit of self-respect, and with the conviction that the American public does not demand filthy pictures, but clean entertainment and education features."

Appropriate committees have been studying the problems of relief and social security in connection with the approaching special session of the State Legislature and the pending session of Congress. These involve questions in which Churchmen have a deep interest and it is essential and important that one Department of the Council give detailed and consecutive attention to them. In this connection the annual luncheon meeting was devoted to an address on the work of emergency relief by Dr. Herbert F. Goodrich, the Chairman of the County Relief Board of Philadelphia and later made Chairman of the Governor's Committee on Unemployment.

Extended attention was given during the year to the relation of the Department to the parishes and a sub committee has been appointed to confer with the Budget Committee of the Council to urge an appropriation for a full time Secretary, without whom it is impossible to carry on the necessary contact work.

A list of books bearing on social problems and the Church's relation to them was prepared and published in The Diocesan News.

Through correspondence with the Bishop of Alabama, Dr. McDowell, the department has kept in touch with the Scottsboro situation, but very little can be done at a distance. The Bishop is handling the matter with admirable good judgment and discretion.

The Department records with deep regret the resignation of the Rev. C. Rankin Barnes as secretary of the National Department of Christian Social Service. His term of office has been marked by a splendid leadership, which has aroused a Church wide interest in social work and in problems of social justice. He has retired to take up parochial work in the parish where his father served for a generation, and our prayers and good wishes go with him.

APPENDIX H

Report of the Cathedral Church of Christ

The Cathedral Church of Christ has functioned in a necessarily limited way during the past year, maintaining a full complement of Sunday services, Holy Communion, Morning Prayer and Evening Prayer, in the Chapel of St. Mary on the Cathedral site in Upper Roxborough, Philadelphia. The outstanding Service of the year was the annual All Saints Day Memorial Service held by the Bishop for the departed members of the church in this Diocese. The Sunday Afternoon Services have sometimes been conducted by visiting Clergy of the Diocese, who have brought the choir and members of their Congregation, making a pilgrimage to the Cathedral and also making it their own Diocesan Church.

The Bishop and Chapter, together with competent architects, have given study to the plans for developing the building of the Cathedral. In the light of today's needs and the normal growth of the Diocese for the next fifty years or more, certain changes and modifications of the tentative plans as represented in the model prepared some years ago, would give us the use of a present-day Cathedral, had we the means to build this portion. This revised study would call for the use of the contemplated Lady Chapel into both a Memorial Chapel of St. Mary and a choir of really Cathedral stature. The carillon tower would be changed into the architectural form of a lantern tower, having transcepts extending from the crossing beneath. The earlier proposed choir would become the Nave, which together with the aforementioned portions of the structure could be built to care for about three thousand people. This would provide for all Diocesan services for at least a half century to come and yet would in no wise curtail or interfere with the greater development of a Cathedral of any size to be produced in the years ahead. In the meantime, the Bishop would have an adequate Church, around which Institutions and Schools of the Diocese might develop, and the Diocese possess a proper Cathedral Structure. Such a project could be an accomplished fact in the life of the Diocese if something over a million dollars was to be had.

The Chapter extends its thanks to the Clergy who at times have officiated in the Chapel of St. Mary, to the Diocesan Altar Guild, who care for the Altar and vestments, to the response of the Clergy in sending in lists of their departed members to be remembered at All Saints, for the Parish representatives to the Cathedral League, and the many acts of co-operation.

Secretary and Canon Residentiary.

APPENDIX J

Report of the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions for the Year 1935

The financial report of the Sustentation Fund will be found in the report of the Treasurer of the Diocese. Both the receipt and the expenditure sides are somewhat swollen by non-recurring items. And some of payments made in 1935 were really on account of 1934.

Disregarding all expenditures except those made in or on account of 1935 it may be said that of the total thus expended $11,705.69 was paid out in regular appropriations to the Aided Parishes and pension assessments on those amounts. A further total of $1,290 was paid out in additional appropriations to certain Parishes where it was found, at the end of the year, that the amount set apart for them at the beginning of the year had not secured to their Rectors the salaries fixed by the Convention. The appropriation to a Parish is based upon the estimate by its Vestry of the probable receipts and expenditures during the coming year. It sometimes happens that things do not work out as expected and that even with the help from the Sustentation Fund the receipts do not prove sufficient to cover indispensable expenses, taxes, interest, Diocesan Assessments and Rector's salary. Under such circumstances either the Rector's salary or the taxes or assessments would not be paid in full. The Commission does not believe that the Convention would want the Rector to suffer in order that the other items might be paid in full, or that it would be satisfactory to any to have the Rector paid in full and the Diocese lose the assessments. Consequently, finding itself with a balance available for such purposes the Commission, for the past two years, has made additional appropriations to such Parishes to enable them to pay their Rectors in full and to meet their obligations in the way of taxes and assessments. In this way $1,200 was paid on account of deficient appropriations in 1934 and $1,290 in 1935. However, if the Commission should not have a balance at the end of the year it could not make such additional payments.

It is well understood that, in order to keep the Diocese in good standing with the Church Pension Fund every Parish must have paid at least six months' pension assessments during the year, and in so far as any have not done so the Commission is instructed by the Canon to make good the amount lacking. In the past this has generally called for quite large sums, but this year the amount actually paid for this purpose has only been $269.81, and of this it is confidently expected that $92 will be repaid. This good showing has been favorably commented upon by the Church Pension Fund authorities and is directly due to the fact that Parish Pension Assessments have been paid in larger amount and with greater promptness than ever heretofore, which, in turn, has probably been due to bills being sent monthly and from New York.

The amount of the $15,000 authorized to be assessed for the Sustentation Fund for 1935 which remains unpaid at this printing is $720.44, which shows that about 95% of the whole has come in. The Commission desires to express its appreciation of the good work of the Accounting Wardens which has made this result possible. The Parishes which have failed to pay the 1935 Assessments in full and the amounts by which they have failed are as follows:

Advocate, Philadelphia	$120.78
All Saints, Crescentville	41.60
Annunciation, Philadelphia	42.85
Atonement, Morton	18.66
Christ, Franklinville	47.57
Emmanuel, Kensington	21.04

Holy Nativity, Rockledge	82.14
S. Elizabeth, L'Emmanuello	12.06
S. James, Downingtown	42.29
S. James, Hestonville	56.63
S. John Chrysostom	14.03
S. John Free	60.59
S. Jude and Nativity	63.99
S. Paul Memorial, Philadelphia	59.23
S. Thomas, Philadelphia	36.98

In printing the above list the Commission does not wish to be understood as expressing any opinion as to whether the delinquent Parishes could or could not have made a better showing. The fact that not a few of them also failed to pay the assessments for the Episcopal and Convention Funds would seem to indicate that in their cases the reason was inability rather than indolence. But inasmuch as the names of Parishes which have not paid the other assessments are always reported to the Convention the Commission felt that the Convention was entitled to have the above information. The figures may also serve to remind the Convention that the Commission never receives, and so can never count upon, the full amount of the assessment which the Convention authorizes, and so has to plan its expenditures on a less sum.

In the budget of the Commission's appropriations for the year 1936 there have been some decreases in amounts heretofore granted, some increases and the addition of two Parishes not heretofore on the list, resulting in a budget which is about $800 more than last year's. This, with a considerably smaller balance carried over this year from 1935, may make it impossible at the end of this year to compensate those Rectors who may be found to have received less than the salary fixed by the Convention, which would mean a partial failure of the whole plan.

In any case the balance likely to be carried over at the end of this year is almost certain to be smaller than heretofore, whereas the needs do not as yet give any indication of becoming any less. After the experience of the last two years and after very careful consideration the Commission feels it its duty to inform the Convention that it cannot promise to maintain salaries at the figures fixed by the Convention during the year 1937 unless authorized to assess a sum not exceeding $16,000. The assessment is not actually made until late in the fall and of course the full amount would not be assessed if the Commission at that time should not believe it to be necessary in order to carry out the mandate of the Convention. The Canon directs the Commission to present to the Convention its estimate of the amount needed to carry out the purposes of the Canon during the next calendar year and we therefore present our estimate for that purpose of $16,000.

The Commission is aware that some of the Aided Parishes may at this time give the impression of being so financially weakened as not properly to be continued any longer as Parishes. But the Commission does not feel that it is its province to pass upon any such questions, and it also suggests that under present abnormal conditions it would be neither fair nor wise for anyone to attempt to decide what the future of a particular Parish should be.

It may be worth while to repeat the statement in our report last year that the work largely maintained by the contributions of the Parishes to the Sustentation Fund is carried on in 21 Parishes and ministers to more than 5,500 Communicants and more than 2,500 children, a larger group than that of not a few Dioceses.

THE COMMISSION ON CLERICAL SALARIES AND PENSIONS.

Report of the Registrar of the Diocese of Pennsylvania

May, 1936.

The canonical duties of the Registrar have been performed regularly through the year, and the statistical records with which his office is charged appear in their proper places in this JOURNAL. In the compilation of these records the assistance of the Rev. Richard J. Morris is gratefully acknowledged.

During the year past the 150th Anniversary of the Convention of 1785 was celebrated. In this connection it may be of interest to note that there are on deposit in the Registrar's vault the original manuscripts of the Minutes of meetings which led to the Institution of a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of Pennsylvania, together with the Constitution or Act of Association of May 24, 1785, bearing the autographed signatures of the Rectors and Deputies of the several Parishes, and the Journals of the first six Conventions of the Diocese from March 29, 1784, to June 9, 1789, inclusive. There is also the manuscript of the Minutes of the Committee of Advice and Correspondence appointed by the Diocesan Convention of May 15, 1787. These records are of inestimable historical value to the Diocese.

I desire to record my thanks to the Rectors of those Parishes who, in response to my request, have mailed to this office copies of parochial papers, programs and pamphlets relating to major historical events of current interest in their Parishes. I respectfully urge the Clergy to continue to assist me in building up these source materials of parochial history.

H. W. GERNAND,
Registrar.

APPENDIX N

(Second) Report of Special Committee On Financial Safeguards

This Committee, appointed pursuant to a Resolution of 1934 Convention (Jnl. 1934, p. 59) made its first Report in 1935 (Jnl. 1935, pp. 47 and 335) at which time it was continued and requested (id. p. 48)

"to consider and to recommend, if they deem it expedient similar recommendations in regard to parochial finances."

The recommendations submitted by the Committee in 1935 had been preceded by and based upon the results of an inquiry. The Committee has pursued a similar course regarding its present recommendations. Every parish was asked the following questions:

1. Audits.
   Have you an audit?
   How often, and by whom?
   Covering what?
2. Bonding.
   Is your treasurer or accounting warden under bond, and for how much?
3. Safe custody and supervision.
   Where are your securities kept?
   Who passes on the soundness of your investments, and how often?
4. Missionary funds.
   Do you keep an account of money given for missions?
   Have you a separate treasurer for missionary moneys?
   How often do you send in missionary moneys?
5. If your parish holds any endowments, has it been difficult or burdensome to carry out terms of trust because of changed conditions?

Out of the 143 parishes addressed 91, two of which gave no name for identification, had replied to date (April 4, 1936) of signing this report for submission to the Committee on Canons thirty days before the meeting date of Convention. Certain further questions were submitted to some of these parishes. The answers have been tabulated with the results now to be stated.

Proper financial practices by religious organizations can be ensured only by supervision. This is the theory implied in the canonical provisions which the Convention of 1935 adopted to govern organizations other than congregations (that is, other than parishes and missions). No matter how excellent the financial safeguards in effect by some organizations at all times and by some at some times, there will be instances where improvement is desirable. The desired improvement is ordinarily easy to obtain when there is someone to point out of what it should consist.

The agency chosen by Convention of 1935 to supervise organizations other than congregations is the Department of Finance of the Executive Council. The same agency could see to it that parishes put and keep in effect proper financial safeguards, but not unless it is given funds for the purpose. It would probably be necessary to provide an assistant Financial Secretary to attend to supervising the parishes and the other organizations together. A competent accountant could no doubt be found to take employment at a reasonable salary and while serving as assistant to the Financial Secretary, who is overburdened at present, to make and carry out plans for the kind of informal consultative advice and assistance which will best bring about improved methods. That there is real need for such a service many rectors know, and the parish reports sent in to the Secretary of Convention show it beyond question.

Your Committee is definitely of opinion that Convention should set its financial house in order by ordering its component parish corporations to maintain ordinary financial safeguards, by instructing some agency to see that this is done, and by providing the financial means for doing it. The Committee recommends the adoption of the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That Section I of Canon XVI be amended to read as follows

Section I.

1. The fiscal year shall begin January 1st and end December 31st.

2. Parishes shall conform to such regulations for the safekeeping of securities, the protection of current funds, the supervision of investments, the auditing of accounts, the making and filing of the parish report now required by Section I of Canon XV, and other financial safeguards and practices, as may from time to time be prescribed by the Executive Council, through the Department of Finance.

3. The Council may provide in the Diocesan budget for the services necessary for the execution of this Section and of Sections II and III.

Respectfully submitted,

By the Special Committee on Financial Safeguards,

LEWIS G. MORRIS,
HOWARD R. WEIR,
S. F. HOUSTON,

APPENDIX O

Report of the Diocesan Commission on the Forward Movement

The Forward Movement Commission in the Diocese of Pennsylvania was appointed by the Bishop in the first week of November with the Reverend Stanley V. Wilcox as Convener.

The Commission held its first meeting on November 12th, at which time Mr. Wilcox was elected as chairman of the Commission.

Steps were immediately taken, with the Bishop's approval, to ask the Right Reverend Henry W. Hobson, D.D., Bishop of Southern Ohio and Chairman of the National Commission on the Forward Movement, to come to the Diocese and present the Forward Movement to the Clergy of the Diocese and to the Laymen. Bishop Hobson came on Wednesday, December 11th, for an all-day Conference of the Clergy, and in the evening, with the co-operation of the Church Club, the Bishop addressed a large gathering of representative Laymen.

Immediately following Bishop Hobson's visit, steps were taken to arrange for Clergy Conferences in every Convocation before Ash Wednesday. The proposed schedule of the Conference meetings was as follows:

10:00 A. M.—Celebration of Holy Communion.
(Rector of the Church to be the Celebrant)
10:45 A. M. to 1 P.M.—Conference directed by the leader of the day.
1:00 P. M.—Luncheon.
After Lunch—Optional.

The Rev. Malcolm E. Peabody, a member of the National Commission, was appointed to the Commission by the Bishop.

Members of the Commission made themselves available for Clergy Conferences and group meetings of Laymen, and addresses have been made to such meetings as follows:

October 18—St. Luke's, Bustleton
October 18—St. John's, Norristown
November 19—Old Swedes' (Gloria Dei)
November 20—St. Barnabas, Haddington
January 15—Convocation of North Philadelphia
January 28—Holy Trinity, West Chester
January 29—St. Martin's, Radnor
January 30—St. Paul's, Chester
February 4—Christ Church, Ridley Park
February 12—St. Martin's, Marcus Hook
March 27—St. James', Prospect Park
March 31—Langhorne, Pa., Country Centre Mission and many other similar meetings.

The Commission arranged to bring Dr. Arthur M. Sherman, D.D., of the Staff of the National Commission of the Forward Movement to the Diocese of Pennsylvania for a week of Services and Conferences. Dr. Sherman made addresses at the following Services and group Conferences and greatly stimulated the interest in the Movement:

February 22—Saturday—Brotherhood of St. Andrew.
Holy Trinity, Philadelphia.
February 23—Sunday—St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill.
St. Luke's, Germantown.
Holy Trinity, Philadelphia.
February 24—Monday—Bishop's Day for Clergy.
St. John's, Cynwyd.
Young People's Forum, 2216 Spruce St.
February 25—Tuesday—Conference of Women, Diocese of Penna.
Episcopal Academy.
February 26—Wednesday—Christ Church, Media.
Chapel of Mediator, West Philadelphia.
February 27—Thursday—All Hallows, Wyncote.
February 28—Friday—Divinity School Group, 42nd and Spruce Sts.
St. Clement's, Philadelphia.

In all the meetings emphasis was laid on the wider use of the Forward Movement literature, especially the pamphlets, Forward—Day-by-Day. The number in use in the Diocese was increased from below 20,000 to over 34,000 for the Lenten number.

The Commission co-operated with the Diocesan Commission on Evangelism in a series of Lenten Preaching Services held in Holy Trinity Church on the Thursday evenings of Lent.

The Commission is co-operating now with the local secretary of the National Retreat Association in connection with a Retreat for Clergy which will be held at the Valley Forge Military Academy from June 21st to June 26th inclusive.

The Commission is co-operating at the present time in a program of Missionary Education being carried on by a corps of Missionary Leaders who are making addresses in all of our Parishes and Missions in the weeks preceding Whitsunday.

On Whitsunday we hope that we can stimulate a very wide use of Act of Affirmation which has been prepared by the National Commission and copies of which will be made available.

APPENDIX P

Report of the Commission on Music

Last year the Commission on Music presented a lengthy printed report to the Convention, in which were set forth the aims and objects of the Commission, as well as the work which had been done in our efforts to fulfill the same. In consequence of that it will not be necessary this year to repeat or amplify anything which has already been presented. This report, therefore, will deal with the actual work done during the past convention year.

At the beginning of this convention year, the Commission elected Mr. Harold W. Gilbert as Chairman, and the Rev. N. Herbert Caley as Secretary.

Beginning in October, 1935, the Commission presented a course of seven weeks' duration which dealt particularly with the problems of the small volunteer choirs, in an endeavor to bring about an improvement in the music of those Parishes and Missions which have but little to spend on their music. The attendance at this annual series of conferences was very gratifying, many Parishes and Missions being represented in the one hundred and fifteen (115) registrations received for the Course.

Mr. Robert Schurig, an eminent vocal teacher of Philadelphia, gave seven hours' instruction on Elementary Principles of Voice Production, which proved exceedingly practical and beneficial.

The members of the Commission followed Mr. Schurig's hourly classes with talks and illustrations of several phases of the choirmaster's work.

In February, the Bishop of the Diocese and the Commission had a supper and conference for the Clergy of those Parishes and Missions whose music appropriations did not exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) per annum. Mr. Gilbert gave a talk on Church Music, and illustrations were given by the volunteer choir of St. Luke's Church, Bustleton (Mr. Leroy Alejos, Choirmaster). The Commission still has the problem of interesting the Clergy more widely in this vital subject, which can so easily make or mar the Worship of the Church, and plans are being made for next year which will include a special course for the Clergy. We trust it will be well attended.

A Volunteer Choir Contest has been arranged for the twenty-third (23rd) of May, 1936, at which nine volunteer choirs will compete for a plaque which has been presented by Bishop Taitt. This contest will be held in St. James's Church through the courtesy of the Rector and Vestry.

The Commission is considering plans which would include certain activities at the next General Convention of the Church. In order to carry out these plans, the Commission needs the approval of this Convention before proceeding with the final arrangements. And, that it may outline its completed plan to this body, the Commission asks for one-half hour's time at the Annual Convention of this Diocese in 1937, and requests this Convention to instruct the Committee on Dispatch of Business to arrange for the same as the Special Order of the Day.

In concluding its report, the Commission offers the following resolutions:

RESOLVED: That the Committee on Dispatch of Business be instructed to allow the Commission on Music one-half hour as the Special Order of the Day at the Annual Convention of the Diocese in 1937, and be it further

RESOLVED: That the Commission on Music be continued, and that the Commission be empowered to fill vacancies and to add to its numbers.

HAROLD W. GILBERT, Chairman.
N. HERBERT CALEY, Secretary.

APPENDIX Q

Report of the Commission on Student Work

The Commission on Student Work, of which the late Rev. Howard Wells Fulweiler was chairman, held a conference for the Student Pastors of the Diocese in June, 1935, at Christ Church, Media, under the leadership of the Rev. Dr. Wedel, Secretary of the National Commission on Student Work.

The Conference was well attended and those present expressed great satisfaction. As a result of it some new work has been started, among which is that at Beaver College under the direction of the Rev. Thomas Burgess, D.D., Rector of All Hallows, Wyncote.

There were no regular meetings of the Commission during the year. With no funds at its disposal it is impossible to develop any definite program for Diocesan Student Work.

In the Autumn of 1935 the Commission sent out its regular Questionnaire to the Clergy asking for the names of students away at School and College. These names were tabulated by the Department of Religious Education and the Bishop sent a personal letter to each student. The names were also sent to the Episcopal chaplains at the institutions in which the students were enrolled, or to the Rector of the Parish in which the institution is located.

There were no regular reports from any of the student Pastors in the Diocese except a brief one from the Rev. William Burnham Stimpson, Episcopal Chaplain at the University of Pennsylvania. He reports that there were special student Lenten Preachers on four Sundays in Lent, at St. Mary's, of Hamilton Village. The preachers were: Bishop Strider, Bishop Cook, the Rev. Howard Chandler Robbins and the Rev. Bernard Iddings Bell. There were also student services on Ash Wednesday and on Wednesday in Holy Week. During the year luncheons were held on Wednesdays with addresses by special speakers.

Following the custom of several years—inaugurated by the students themselves—the students of Swarthmore College held their annual Service in Trinity Church on the second Sunday in Advent. They participated in the Service and a Committee of eight from each class co-operated with the Rector and over 100 students were present—the largest number at such a Service.

The Commission hopes that with more active co-operation, especially in financial matters, that it may develop a work reaching all Episcopal students in the educational institutions in the Diocese.

J. JARDEN GUENTHER,
Secretary.

APPENDIX R

Report of the Committee on Commemoration of the 150th Anniversary of the Convention of 1785

The 150th Anniversary of the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States was commemorated by appropriate activities on Monday, October 7, 1935. It opened with a service of the Holy Communion in the historic Christ Church, Philadelphia, at which the celebrant was the Right Reverend Francis Marion Taitt, the Ninth Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, assisted by the Right Reverend Paul Matthews, Bishop of New Jersey, and the Right Reverend Philip Cook, Bishop of Delaware.

At the service, the Reverend Dr. E. Clowes Chorley, historiographer of the General Convention, delivered an address outlining the various achievements of the 1785 meeting, as well as the activities leading up thereto.

The service was followed by a meeting in the Neighborhood House of Christ Church, held under the auspices of the Clerical Brotherhood of the Diocese in commemoration of the 100th Anniversary of the Consecration of Reverend Jackson Kemper as the first Missionary Bishop of the American Northwest. The chairman of the meeting was the Reverend J. W. B. Stewart, chairman of the Brotherhood, who introduced the speaker, the Reverend Howard Morris Stuckert, Rector of the House of Prayer. Dr. Stuckert delivered a stirring address upon "The Apostle of the Northwest."

This meeting was followed by a Luncheon at the Penn Athletic Club, given by the Church Club of Philadelphia, at which the Right Reverend Philip Cook, Bishop of Delaware, in an address, made a vigorous appeal that the men of today should show the same courage and daring as their forefathers of one hundred and fifty years ago.

During the services in Christ Church, the Reverend Louis C. Washburn, its Rector, read a letter of greeting received from the Most Reverend and Right Honorable Cosmo Gordon Lang, Archbishop of Canterbury and Primate of All England, and Bishop Taitt read a letter of reply thereto which was subsequently signed by all the Bishops present and forwarded to the Archbishop of Canterbury.

At the meeting in the Neighborhood House in commemoration of the Consecration of Bishop Kemper, the Reverend Dr. Edward M. Jefferys, Rector of St. Peter's Church, 3rd and Pine Streets, Philadelphia, read a message from the Right Reverend James De Wolf Perry, presiding Bishop. It was in St. Peter's Church in 1835, following twenty years' service as Assistant to Bishop White, the Rector of the United Churches of Christ and St. Peter's, that Bishop Kemper was consecrated.

Representatives were present from the seven states which sent Deputies to the Convention of 1785. Among the other Bishops attending the services were Bishop Sterrett, of Bethlehem, Pa.; Bishop Creighton, Coadjutor of Long Island; Bishop Washburn, Coadjutor of Newark, N. J.; Bishop Knight, Coadjutor of New Jersey; Bishop Davenport, of Easton, and Bishop Moreland, formerly of Sacramento, California, and now retired.

Among those who were present officially, representing their respective Bishops, were the Reverend Dr. G. MacClaren Brydon, of the Diocese of Virginia, and Mr. Rosewell Page, of Beaver Dam, Virginia. Mr. Page is a direct descendant of Governor John Page, who was a Deputy from Virginia to the Convention of 1785.

Many others were present representing other Parishes and Dioceses, among whom were the Reverend Walter H. Stowe, of New Brunswick, N. J.; Reverend Charles L. Allen, of Old Chester Parish, Diocese of Easton; Reverend Joseph H. Earp, of New Castle, Delaware; Reverend Charles A. Rantz, of Claymont, Delaware; Reverend Charles K. E. Warmeling, of Newark; Reverend H. W. Diller, of Pottsville, Pa., and the Reverend Louis W. Tucker, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

APPENDIX S

Report of the Commission on Evangelism

During the past year the Commission has been more active than ever before. In the fall of 1935, in co-operation with the Retreat Association of the Diocese, a mass meeting on retreats was held in the Church of the Holy Trinity, at which the speakers were the Rev. E. L. Henderson, Dean of St. Alban's Abbey Church, England, and Dr. W. C. Sturgis. A day's conference for Clergy on Schools of Prayer was conducted by the Rev. Malcolm Taylor, Director of the National Commission on Evangelism. A Preaching Mission was held on Thursday evenings during Lent at the Church of the Holy Trinity. The attendance at these various meetings was very encouraging. The Commission has co-operated throughout the year with the Woman's Auxiliary, the Commission on the Forward Movement, the Brotherhood of St. Andrew and the Diocesan Retreat Association, in furthering evangelistic projects. The Commission desires to recommend two proposed evangelistic enterprises which are not conducted under its auspices, the Retreat for Clergy to be held in June, and the Conference for Young People in July. Both of these will be held at the Valley Forge Military Academy. The Commission wishes to express its gratitude to the Rev. Howard R. Weir, the Rev. John R. Huggins, the Vestry of the Church of the Holy Trinity and Mr. Ralph Kinder for their kindness and assistance in its work. The Commission has suffered a loss in the death of one of its members, the Rev. Howard Fulweiler, and expresses its appreciation of his service and its sympathy with his family.

J. K. Shryock,
Chairman.
